“ I love and will always remember you my dear cousin, Ray. I have many fond early childhood memories of you, along with Aunt Gladys and Uncle Bill, Sylvia, and cousins Ricky and David. I also remember when you visited our home in Chicago, when you were stationed at the naval base nearby. i must have been a pre-teen, and you and my sister, Paula, were closer in age with each other. I remember all of us laughing in the kitchen, while you and Paula affectionately tussled, snapping wet cloth towels at one another. You were quick and fierce and quick to laugh! I send my prayers for you, for your family, and I hold you in my heart. Janet Coster
