“ I remember being close to all my uncles as a child. Uncle Scott was only 7 years older than me so we were close when we were younger. I lost touch when Uncle Scott moved to South Carolina to live with his father. My next memory of Uncle Scott was him being incarcerated in South Carolina. He was 21 years old and committed a crime that keep him incarcerated the rest of his life. I was able to visit Uncle Scott a few times when he was transferred from South Carolina to Oklahoma. It was his first interaction with police and it cost him life in prison. Uncle Scott was a gifted musician and singer. He was a kind soul that made a tragic decision to befriend the wrong people. This decision got him caught up in a world that no one should be a part of. He was such a kind soul. I love him and will miss him. I feel a sense of relief knowing he has finally escaped the confines of prison and is now resting eternally with our Father, the Lord Jesus Christ. Uncle Scott confessed his sins and was born again! May you rest in piece Uncle Scott. I love you.
Your Nephew,
Mitchell
