“ Aunt Reba had such a sweet, gentle spirit and was always so soft spoken. I never heard her raise her voice - not even when playing Pitch with Mom and Aunt Wilda. She would just smile her "Aunt Reba" smile as she gently laid the Ace on their King or Queen. I will always cherish my memories of her.

“ Ronnie, Ann, Glenda & Cathy, Your mom was one of the first people my mother met when we moved to Stratford from south Texas. You were moving out of the house on Main Street across from Mrs. Stafford as we were moving in. Ronnie, Mother said you had fallen off the porch and broken your collar bone. Not sure about that memory or me repeating what she told me years ago, but pretty sure you had a broken bone somewhere! Mother always remembered your mom as a very quiet and sweet lady. Happy that she is with her sweetheart again and glad all of you were a part of my life. Losing your mom is very hard but we motherless "kids" will pray for your strength and peace. Love you all!

“ Mrs. Magar was one of the sweetest Ladies I ever knew. I spent many hours at her home with my best friend Ronnie. I remember watching American Bandstand while Glenda and Ann danced to the music. It was fun to watch. She was the exact image of June Cleaver on the " Leave it to Beaver Show ". May she rest in peace with her devoted husband E.V.
Peace to all the family.

“ My Aunt Reba was a sweet and beautiful person. I have many good memories of her. I remember her special chocolate cake with the little candy silver ball decorations for Christmas Eve at our house. I also remember going to her house after ballgames or other school activities to wait for my dad to come and pick me up. She always opened the door for me no matter the time of day or night. She was a very efficient secretary for my dad's business. We knew we could depend on her and Uncle Essel as well as Uncle Elvis and Aunt Wilda when we needed help. She will be greatly missed.
