

Rejah LoVell Walker

August 14, 1936 - November 12, 2021

Rejah LoVell Walker, age 85, passed away peacefully at home with her family by her side on Friday November 12, 2021. Rejah was born August 14, 1936 in Sulphur, Oklahoma to John Howard Moore and Lorrene Mitchell. Rejah attended Sulphur schools and went on to marry Dale C. (Bill) Walker on June 8, 1953. He preceded her in death January 15, 2011.

Bill and Rejah lived in Sulphur where they owned and operated Walker Shop. Rejah enjoyed being a housewife and mother to their three children. Rejah loved sewing for their children and chaperoning many school events over the years. In addition, she was an avid bowler and loved bowling at Suburban Lanes with her women's bowling league (Bill's Beavers) as well as the co-ed league where she and Bill bowled together. Rejah also volunteered as a poll worker during elections. Rejah loved her friends and family. She loved to laugh and play practical jokes. She went above and beyond to make the holidays extra special and filled the house full of love and homemade recipes she would work so diligently to perfect for each and every holiday season. Preceding her in death was her husband of 58 years Bill Walker, her parents, her brother Reedy Lee Moore, sister Mary LaDayne Williams, and grandsons John Paul Lawrence and Christopher John Lawrence.

Rejah is survived by her three children:

Warren Walker and wife Chris of Wichita Falls, TX

Barbara Lanter and husband Wally of Davis, OK

Patricia Richardson and husband Michael of Schertz, TX
as well as seven grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Jerry Walker, Kenny Walker, Jaxon Walker, Brandon Bolding, Brent Deen, and Brecken Deen.

Honorary Bearers: Donald Green Ronald Green.
