“ Dear Velma and family. Just got the Times-Democrat in the mail and read about the loss of your husband Richard. Please accept my sincere sympathy.

I guess you can say I am an "old friend" from my years in Sulphur and with the newspaper, and that you will remember me. Always admired and respected you and your family. Still consider you a great friend.

I know this Christmas Season will be tough for you and the kids without Richard there. I have gone through those feelings, too. Hope you all will think of all the "good memories" you shared with him.

Take care, Velma. My best wishes to you and your family . . .
