

Richard Dale Hines

February 6, 1960 - September 24, 2023

Richard Dale Hines passed from this life on Sunday, September 24, 2023, in Sulphur, Oklahoma, at the age of 63.

Richard was born to Dale and Melva Hines on February 6, 1960, in Farmington, New Mexico. He spent his youth in Reno, Nevada, and attended Reno High School. He enjoyed going to work with his dad who built and installed neon signs for the casinos, even from his early childhood. It began his lifelong dedication to hard physical labor. Eventually, he and his dad developed Hines Construction where they built many custom homes across Nevada, Oklahoma, and even a stint building the architectural design of Frank Lloyd Wright's son in the Ahwatukee Foothills of Phoenix. Richard's son later joined the construction team.

Richard loved riding motorcycles. He explored the Sierra Nevada on mini bikes from the age of six and grew into dirt bikes and enjoyed the sport of Motocross. He was an avid NASCAR fan and loved muscle cars, especially his Corvette.

His daughter Ashley was born in 1988 and his son Marshal in 1989 to him and his first wife Carol, in Reno, Nevada.

He later married the love of his life, Linda Knox Taylor on January 18, 2000, in Negril, Jamaica. They Central to Richard's life was his relationship with God and his devotion to the church family at Faith Center. He put his trust fully in God and the power of prayer.

Survivors include his loves Linda, daughter Ashley with her children Galexy and Russia Nova, son Marshal, stepsons Cody and Denver, mother Melva, siblings Cynthia, Tim and wife Cindy, and a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, a great grandson, and friends.

Preceding him in death were his father Dale Hines and his paternal and maternal grandparents.

Services: Saturday September 30, 2023 at 1:00PM at Faith Center Church, Sulphur, Oklahoma, with Craig Lemley officiating.
