“ I'm going to miss our nights we shared hunting together Bob. You was one of a kind and I enjoyed our trips chasing those dogs and raising cane when they wouldn't do what we wanted them to do. I know Bruno was waiting on you at the gates wagging his tail ready to hunt. Rest in peace old friend and can't wait to join you in the woods again.

“ Bob was a one of a kind for sure. He'd been around my family since I could remember and hunted with the boys. He enjoyed coon hunting so much and the young 'uns loved learning from him and listening to him cuss his dogs. It was just who he was. And we loved that. He always had a smile, a funny laugh, and usually something to tease you about. He will be deeply missed.
