“ For many years Bob & my late husband, Monte King, were co-workers for ODOT. Bob was a hard worker, loyal and generous friend. Many entertaining stories could be told! Bob often shared something he had caught or grew. One story I can't forget: Bob showed up with a wild piglet squealing, nose down in a 5 gal bucket. When Monte questioned why the little thing was upside down, Bob stated in his calm way, "Because the other end bites."
