“ Today is February 6, 2020 and I was just informed that my beloved Uncle Bob passed away last year. I knew something was wrong because he always called me for my birthday and Christmas. He and I became very close when I visited him and Aunt Betty in 2006. We spoke regularly and shared a love for Jesus. He always told me that he was praying for me and our family as well as always telling me how much he loved me. To his brother and grand daughter Nina, I send my condolences for your loss. My heart is so sad that I won't be able to talk to Uncle Bob again, but I have all his voicemails saved. When the Lord chooses to take me, I'll give him a big hug again. I miss you and truly love you Uncle Bob; you were a blessing in my life.

“ Uncle Bob was someone very special to me. Sadly, I just found out today(Feb,6,2020) about his passing. I wish that I could've been at his funeral. I always enjoyed when Uncle Bob would visit our family in Clovis, CA while driving truck. But we got to know each other best when I visited him in 2006. We had a special bond in our relationship with Jesus. God changed him so much and he never got tired of talking about it, and he always told me he was praying for me and my family. I have several of his voicemails saved, but will truly miss our talks. I will miss Uncle Bob so deeply, but rejoice that he is with Jesus and my Aunt Betty now. I love you Uncle Bob. I'll see you when the Lord calls me home. ❤️😭
