“ Rosemary and I were best friends from the time we were about 10. We had so much fun together out on her parents ranch. Her mother would take us to the country dance in Ryan where we learned to two step. She was such a sweet and wonderful soul and a beautiful girl with dark dancing eyes. Love her always

*Hats off to the brave and peaceful decision by Rosemary Bowen to go to her eternal journey
In India Jains have similar practice called Sallekhana which is being observed since more than 25000 years to ahev a peaceful nd auspicious death. We need to understand this better and promote this , liek alternate medicine system, to let brave people, who are faced with incurable disease or extreme old age to go peacefully rather than in ICUs in hospitals.
We will light candles in her memory today*

“ Rosie became one of my best friends. She taught me how to make jelly and jam. She did my ancestry and found that I have Indian. She was pushing me to get on the roll.....we went camping and was making plans to go to Nashville. She was the most giving, helpful sweet, funny and loud human being I knew. I miss her laughter, her smile the way she yelled...."AL" !!!! I love you Rosie Bowen....you will always be in my heart.FOREVER... Linda B.
