“ Aunt Rosie, I love you with all my heart. It is sad that you are no longer on this earth but God knew best. Thank for sharing your heart, mind and soul while on this earth. I will always remember the love you showed me every time I came to stay for the summer or just a short trip up the road to visit you for a day. The sun speaks to the very person that you where, bright. Full of life until the end. Love you so much and I will see you again. To my family love you guys and always know your mom, grandmother was the greatest to have known. Beverly Parker
