“ My heart is sad for you, LeeAnna, and for the boys, the entire family. I have walked a similar path, so my words come from experience. There are things we cannot understand here on this earth, but someday we will. There are a lot of good memories of Russell - the times we fellowshipped at your home, the times he included Jeff on fishing and hunting trips, all the church services we attended together. My prayer is for the Lord to comfort you during this transition and give you the strength you need to go through each new day.
