

Sharon Kay (Callen) Daniel

September 3, 1963 - September 21, 2020

Sharon Kay Callen entered this life on September 3, 1963 at Johnston County Memorial Hospital in Tishomingo, Oklahoma. Her parents were Leo L. (Jaybird) and JoAnn Harrison Callen. She was the youngest of three children having an older brother, James and a sister, Cheryl. Kay attended school at Fillmore and Milburn. Later she obtained a cosmetology degree and worked in a shop for several years. She never liked being in a closed area. She drove a truck for several years but got tired of being away from home. Kay finally found a career when she went and got a degree in dietary management. Mercy Hospital in Tishomingo hired her and she worked there until her health issues forced her to retire this year. She left this life on September 21, 2020 at her home outside of Milburn.

Kay is survived by her fiancé, David; mother, JoAnn Callen; daughter, Amanda; sister, Cheryl; 3 grandchildren, Destiny, Scott and Faith; plus, a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

In her teen years she was baptized at the Milburn First Baptist Church. She was preceded in death by her father, Jaybird; son, Cody; brother, James; two husbands, George Ford and Bobby Daniel.

Kay was a talented crafts person and enjoyed making and giving gifts to friends and relatives. She liked fishing, gardening, canning and her little dog.

A family memorial will be held at 2:00 PM Saturday, October 3, 2020 at Bold Springs Cemetery.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

OCT 3. 2:00 PM (CT)

Bold Springs
Milburn, OK

Tribute Wall

“ Sharon Kay (Callen) Daniel

October 05, 2023 at 07:47 PM