“ Tommy, I am so sorry to hear about Sheila's passing. It took me back to 1973ish when she and Vickie S lived above the apartment that my now sister-in-law and I lived in on Oak Street in PV. It was the start of a cherished friendship that continued as we worked together thru the years at several different jobs afterwards. She was always a sweetheart. I pray you and your family will keep your memories of her close at heart as you struggle thru the coming days.

Heartbreaking to hear of Sheila's passing. She was as joyful a person as I've ever met and the world is a lesser place without her in it. Praying that you may find comfort and peace, Tommy and Family, Gene, Sue, Janice - so sorry for your loss. She was an extraordinary human being.
