“ *Shanna Lou,
We are so sorry for the loss of your mother. Sherry was always so sweet anytime we saw her; always with that big smile on her face. Bradey has many fond memories of staying at your house when you girls were growing up. As we know, that's how she learned about farming! Sherry treated her just like she was one of her kids. She will be missed but we must find peace knowing that we will see her again in heaven. We will be praying for your sweet family, asking God to comfort you & your family during this difficult time. We love you!*
