“ Still having a hard time grasping that she is gone. When I saw her a month ago she was sporting her new hair cut and hiding a package of Lindor candy in her wheelchair so no one could steal it! She always made me laugh! Love and miss you Tina!

Tina was my number one. Cuzziie wuzzie. A brilliant and wise woman. We both were raised in California and attended the same Church for years. She was my rock when I was travelling around the country..Checked in with her everyday. She was always there for me. This world was a Better place because of her.... Fly high Teenie Weenie ..until we meet again....keep the Gate open...I love you forever and ever and ever
