

Tommy Clines Isenberg

August 3, 1951 - December 29, 2020

Tommy Clines Isenberg, 69, of Tishomingo, passed from this life on December 29, 2020 at Blue River Nursing Home in Tishomingo, Oklahoma. Tommy was born on August 3, 1951 in Durant, Oklahoma to C.W. and Ollie Harner-Isenberg. He grew up as one of eight children; 7 boys and 1 girl. He would like it noted that he was the strongest, and the most handsome of his brothers. He graduated from Tishomingo High School. Tommy's happiest hours were spent with his family and growing things. He would say "I don't want to brag, but I'm a better farmer than my brothers." Tommy was a generous, loving, caring man who always worried that others had everything they needed; he hated more than anything for someone to go without. Tommy could walk into any room and light it up with his smile and witty remarks. This world isn't as bright of a place without the ornery gleam in his eyes and his laughter in the air.

Tommy is preceded in death by his parents, C.W. and Ollie Isenberg; brothers, Bill and Carlton Isenberg; sister-in-law, Nancy Isenberg.

Those he leaves to cherish his memories are children, Ty Isenberg and wife Christa of Sulphur, Amy Miller and husband Ronnie of Madill; grandchildren, Reagan Miller, Addyson Miller, Kandle Fort, Preston Fort, Skyla Alberson; great grandchildren, Keldon Stephens, Kilynn Stephens, Kambrie Farmer; siblings, Patsy Adams and husband Danny of Milburn, Eddie Isenberg and wife Sheila of Fillmore, David Isenberg and wife Tammy of Milburn, Arnold

Isenberg of Milburn, Jerry Isenberg and wife Mary of Ravia and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Graveside services to honor and celebrate the life of Tommy Isenberg will be held at 1:00 PM on Monday, January 4, 2020 at Condon Grove Cemetery in Milburn. Family hour will be held on Sunday, January 3 from 1:00 – 5:00 PM.

I have so many childhood memories with you and your Dad. Riding on the flatbed truck down by the blue river. Playing for hours in the pasture down by the creek. Listening to your record player!!! Lol Uncle Tommy telling us stories about creatures in the woods and how he fought off different characters. Never a dull moment!

I have so many fond memories of you. From long walks around town, to going and getting ice cream, and our wild wrestling matches, all the way to raising countless chickens together. But the thing I'll miss the most is just being able to sit down and talk too you. Hearing your jokes, hearing your wisdom. Your personality was bigger than life itself. But so was your heart, and your love for your family.

*Thank you for everything
Till we meet again, I love you

This is Tommy's big adventure going to check the irrigation pump in the middle of the night.

When he got done checking the pump he got the truck stuck in the mud. All he had on was his fruit of the looms on. He had to walk 3 miles home. Two of those miles was on the highway. Cars would go by and honk but not one offered him a ride.

When we moving irrigation pipe one summer he brought lunch out to us but the only thing he had to drink in the ice chest was beer. I was thirsty so grabbed one and tried drinking it but as soon as I tasted it i spit out. The ice was half melted in the ice chest so i started pouring the beer out so i could fill the can up with water. He slapped me in the back the head and said “You opened it, you drink it. Aint wasting my damn beer.”

We were driving through tishomingo one day this ole gal was bent over underneath her car hood had on those daisy duke cut shorts. Tommy just stopped in the middle of main street and whistled at her and said “hey baby you want go to the bar with me tonight?” When she stood up and turned around she had a full beard and mustache. I thought he was going to get sick.

Today he told me about a trip he took to Mexico when he was younger. He managed to cut himself pretty good on some sharp coral while snorkeling. When he saw that he was bleeding he decided it was a good time to stand up and yell “shark!!” He laughed and said he’d never knew that people from all nationalities could understand the meaning of one word! He laughed again when he said that woman from Argentina sure lost her Bikini top in a hurry!

“ Amy Miller-
*About three years ago Dad made me take him to the funeral home and get his funeral arrangements made (In retrospect that was an incredible gift)
Anyway, my dad could care less about anything he said and the man who we met with was quite "refined". About half way through the meeting Dad looked that man in the eye with the straightest face and said "Im going to need 3-4 wailers for the service."
Confused the man repeated "Wailers? Im not sure what you mean."
Dad quickly replied, "You know, Wailers. Women who will wail in the sorrow of my passing. Id prefer they were topless but I guess they can wear clothes."
I almost crawled under that man's desk!*

One time dad had to be taken to the er. Now my dad did NOT like to wait. He couldn't sit still, had to be moving or doing something. So after 30 minutes of being in that little room he was DONE. He ripped back those covers and low and behold what to my wandering eyes did appear, but my dad not wearing underwear under that dang hospital gown! "Oh MY GOSH DAD YOU DONT HAVE ON DRAWERS!!!!" Dad stopped moving, looked me square in face, with the most serious expression and said "Well then, dont look."

Several years ago Booger, Eddie, Tommy, little Colby and I were out checking some cows. Tommy found two boards to put together and found a piece of rope to make Colby a stick horse. After a little while that horse got to bucking and turning and that "horse" came flying around and the board hit Tommy square in the shin. After he stopped hurting they all joked that the horse kicked him.
