“ Val was a sweet wonderful woman who will be missed. This is one of my favorite poems and it says it all:

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you wake in the morning hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft starlight at night.
Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die!*

“ My dear wonderful friend I will miss you but my prayers are answered that you are at peace with our Lord. Your suffering had been long and hard enough and now you have no more pain. Your body is whole and beautiful again. I will see you again in the heavens above. Laugh and enjoy yourself as you deserve to. My tears here is for me that I have been left here. There is more to do here for the Lord. Smiles my sweet friend. And as always a hug for you.

“ Valery was the nicest, most loving, and strongest woman that I have ever had the privelege to know. She fought a long hard battle with cancer and mangaged to alway be upbeat and positive and still worked full time while taking the numerous cancer treatments. Valery touched a lot of lives and will be missed by those that knew and loved her. I am going to miss my friend.
