“ The thing that I remember most about Violet Seward is that I was never in her home without her telling me about how good God and His Son Jesus are. She had great faith and love for God and was certain about her home in Heaven. Violet Seward would tell us that all people can have that same certainty. I could say, in the past tense, that Violet Seward was a wonderful lady. But I will speak in the present tense and say that Violet Seward IS still a wonderful lady. She has not ceased to be. The Bible says "Whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." (John 11:26). I look forward to seeing her again. In the meantime, I hope she introduces herself to my mother.

My prayers are for her family.
