

Vyna May Willis - Catron

September 24, 1964 - May 14, 2023

Vyna May Willis-Catron made her journey from this earth on May 14, 2023 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She was born in Talihina, Oklahoma on September 24, 1964. She leaves behind by her partner and love of her life, Dale Catron; kid, Brandon White Eagle; daughter, Tara White Eagle; granddaughters, Brenlee and Jayla Underwood; and grandson Elliott Robert White Eagle; siblings, Rita and Brub Hart, Sandra and Wayne Lahi, and Lorene Willis; and brother Matthew Atole; and sister in law Sylvia Willis. She had several close nieces and nephews, Erny Zah Jr, Chance Factor, Levi Hart, Robyn Zah, Linsay Castleberry, Ashley Wallace and Jared Factor; and grand nieces and nephews with a special closeness with Taelynn Zah since birth.

She was preceded in death by her parents, James and Greta (Velarde) Willis; sister, Janie Willis-Zah; and brother James Willis Jr.

Vyna and Dale made their home in Pontotoc, Oklahoma for the past several years. She attended McLish High School and graduated with her Bachelor's Degree in business from East Central University in Ada, Oklahoma. Vyna worked for the Chickasaw Nation Information Technology Division for more than 15 years.

Vyna is remembered for her kindness and ever enduring smile she shared with all who came in her presence. She was known as the "Baby" by her siblings, but also as "Beans," along with other terms of endearment from her family. She loved her children and was a gentle mother figure for her nephews and nieces. She enjoyed traveling and creating new memories with her husband and family.

Vyna's final resting place will be at Seeley-Chapel Cemetery following the gravesite services on May 16, 2023 at 10:30 a.m. Officiated by Brother Allen Beck. A meal for family and friends will follow at The Temple of God Church in Connerville, Oklahoma.

Pallbearers Erny Zah Jr, Chance Factor, Levi Hart, Jared Factor, Matthew Catron and Dale Catron

Honorary Pallbearers are her grandchildren.

“ Vyna always cracked me up. She was quiet at work but taught me the ropes quickly. I will miss seeing her around town and hearing about her adventures with Dale, whom she loved so much. She talked about him often.
