

Wanda Jean Littlepage

February 24, 1929 - August 25, 2011

Funeral Services for Mrs. Wanda Jean Littlepage, 82, former longtime Tishomingo resident, will be held on Monday, August 29th, 2011 at 3:00 p. m. in the First Baptist Church with Rev. Kenneth McCarthick officiating. Interment will be in the Tishomingo Cemetery.

Wanda Jean Littlepage was born on February 24th, 1929 in Okemah, Oklahoma, the only child of Tom and Ruby Coale. She lived at the Baptist Village in Oklahoma City and joined her heavenly father on August 25th, 2011. Wanda attended Okemah High School and graduated from East Central University in Ada, Oklahoma with a Bachelor of Science degree in Education. She also was a member of Chi Omega sorority. Wanda taught English and Home Economics in Johnston County for over 30 years. She enjoyed life and her many friends. Her passion was a faithful love of the Lord, her family, and being a homemaker. Her beautiful smile will be deeply missed, but her spirit will be with us until we are together again in heaven.

Mrs. Littlepage was preceded in death by her parents and her husband of 57 years, S. G. "Pete" Littlepage on April 12th, 2008.

She is survived by her daughter & son-in-law, LuAnn & Gary Hulse of Oklahoma City; two grandchildren, Dr. Greg Hulse & his wife Darcy of Edmond, Oklahoma and Alexis Hulse Benson & her husband John of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; and three great-grandchildren, Jack & Clara Hulse and Laney Benson.

Pallbearers for the service will be: Ron Hutchings, Lynn Wood, Charles Wyatt, Jr., Luther Harbert, Larry Wood and Boyd Houser. Honorary Bearers will be: Bill Thomas, Wayne Walker and Donnie Rowland.
