“ My Dad was so much more than these few words can convey. He would help anyone, with anything. He always had the corniest jokes and would call at all hours to share them. I and many others will miss him more than words can say.

I served in the Air Force with Bill at Loring during the late 70's. He was quite a man. Great times. Sorry to learn of his passing. I remember him on the phone spelling his last name to someone. Said fast it always sounded like he was saying "can of wax". God's speed Bill.
