“ We would like to send our love and condolences to the family. Wilma was a kind, sweet lady who had a heart of gold. Her faithfulness through the years serves as an example for all of us. She was especially kind to me, as a young preacher, often extending the warmth of her hospitality. Mike, I would love to see you. I still think about the summer of 1970, when we both traveled with Miles King, and the deep friendship that we shared. Please know that all of you will be in our prayers and thoughts in the days ahead-- Billy & Judy Dickinson##imported-begin##Billy Dickinson##imported-end##
